Feedback Analysis	The responses from the stakeholders are very encouraging. One of the hallmarks of our college is a healthy student-teacher relations with a healthy environment. The college reduces the burden of tuition fees for the students. Thirty-six digital cameras have been installed for a better vigilance removing the previous analogue system. The college organizes several career-centric programs according the demand of the present students and alumni. In this regard, we seek help of certain reputed academic organizations of the district. The Research and Publication Cell of the college is keen on publishing the third volume of Basundhara, a Research Oriented Book on Arts, Humanities, Social Science & Management. We know that there are still certain spaces for improvement. Few books of some departments as prescribed by the CBCS syllabus are still not present in the library, it needs to be procured on urgent basis. A prayer to the competent authority has been sent seeking the sanctioning for several non-teaching posts of the college. The feedback of the students shall certainly make us motivated and bring forth more positive results in future.
